School App / FaceBook/ School Website

- Glenholme School has a FaceBook page for you to view any information and regular updates on any sporting and extra curricular events happening.
- Our School App will be released this term.
- Glenholme School has a website;
www.glenholme.school.nz

The School Newsletter will be accessed via these three forms in Term Two. Starting Term Two the paper copy of the school newsletter will no longer be sent home on Thursdays and will be available on-line instead.

Glenholme School BICYCLE PROCEDURE

- Glenholme School and NZ Police recommends that children under 10 years of age DO NOT ride bicycles to or from school. Students younger than 10 should be accompanied by an adult.
- Parents/ caregivers who choose to allow their child/ren to bike to and from school are responsible. (Glenholme School is responsible for students whilst inside the school gates).
- Children must correctly wear a "Standards" approved bicycle helmet at all times when in control of a bicycle.
- All Land Transport New Zealand (LTNZ) road codes concerning cyclists are to be followed (www.ltsa.govt.nz).
- Bicycles ridden to school must be in good, safe working order. It is the responsibility of the parent/caregivers to ensure that the bicycle is in good and safe working order and that all protective equipment as required by law is provided.
- Bicycle riders are expected to use the available bicycle entry points. These are via the following entry points; Ranolf Street and Miller Street.
- Bicycle riders are to dismount before entering the school grounds and walk their bicycles whilst on site.
- Bicycles are to be stored in the bike rack provided. Bicycles must be locked with a chain and padlock supplied by the bicycle owner. Bicycles and helmets brought and stored on school grounds are at the owner's risk.

PRINCIPALS AWARDS

Awarded to students making exceptional effort and or achievement at school, therefore deserving of acknowledgement and recognition.

A1 Sarahna Prasad you are congratulated on your diligence in writing. You work incredibly hard to achieve your learning intention by always self assessing to ensure you have included the success criteria. A1 are very fortunate to have a role model who continuously contributes to classroom discussions and shares with the class your example of what an excellent standard of writing looks like. Whaea Sarah and A1 are so proud of your outstanding achievement.

A2 Ellie Brown for demonstrating a strong awareness of the purpose for her writing. I.e. to entertain and inform the reader. Ellie uses a variety of writing features to grasp the reader's interest and tempt them to delve deeper into her story. This includes the use of similes, powerful adjectives, rhetorical questions and the use of dialogue. Well done Ellie, I can't wait for your next piece of literary art!!

A3 Ty Peterson for being able to perform to an audience with panache and flair as the mighty Tamatekapua in our class play about this famous Te Arawa ancestor. You were captivating and set the tone for the rest of the classes performance. Continue to show that great warriors ethics. Tumeke Ty.

A5 Harriette Davies for your understanding of the writing process has become evident Harriette. You are able to successfully proof read and edit your writing, checking for errors and areas that you could improve. This shows that you are constantly striving for excellence in your writing. Keep up the great work!

A6 Chloe Francis for showing the Glenholme School values of achievement and a Go for It! attitude in all areas of learning. Chloe has moved up several levels in her reading already this term and has achieved her learning intentions in writing. Chloe has made this progress because she is a great listener and focuses on all her tasks.

B1 Boran Aydin for his commitment to writing. He knows where to find his learning intention and is steadily working towards achieving all his success criteria. Boran is able to re-read his writing to work out what his next steps are and use classroom resources independently to add detail to his writing. Well done Boran. Keep up the good work.

B2 Layne Murray has been working extremely hard in B2 to successfully complete her Success Criteria with her writing. Layne is always checking and re-checking her work. She is able to read her feedback from her teacher and improve where she needs to. Well done Layne, you are amazing!

B3 Kayla MacDonald for being incredibly proactive and confident when assessing a piece of her writing against the success criteria. You reflected on your writing and independently ticked off what you had completed. Ka mau te wehi Kayla, I am impressed!

B5 Harry Lane for the fantastic effort he puts into all of his work. He listens well to instructions and stays on task. He is making good progress with his Writing by knowing his Learning Intention and how he will achieve it. Harry is also a helpful person to his peers and to Whaea Mercia. Thank you for being a fabulous student and role model!

B6 Drishika Renjin for all the wonderful learning she is doing at school. At writing time Drishika is writing two interesting ideas joined by "and." At maths time Drishika is reading and putting the numbers to 20 in order. At reading time Drishika is learning to read so many words. Drishika has even been doing impressive learning in the school pool! She can now float beautifully with boards on her front and back. We love having you in B6, Drishika!

C6 Luka Maurirere is a C6 superstar! Luka is a fabulous independent learner who is always focused and completes her work to a high standard. She can write over 2 pages of work and can spell all her high frequency words correctly. In her reading she has blasted off the reading rocket and landed on the first planet - well above her chronological age. Luka you are a great role model for C6 learners, Miss Bridgeman and C6 are so proud of you. Ka mau te wehi!

C7 Mosese Poafa is a diligent member of C7 who always works away quietly and carefully. He is making great progress in all areas of the curriculum and is an expert at crafting stories on his own using his word mate dictionary to help him with tricky words. Mosese you are such a lovely boy with beautiful manners. We love having you in C7.

C8 Blake Tapsell-Singh for making a consistent and genuine effort with your learning in all subject areas. In Writing you are starting to sound out and write the letters you can hear, when trying to spell words that are new to you. This means you can be a more independent writer. In Reading, you notice if it doesn't look quite right, so you go back and read it again. You are starting to correct some of your own mistakes. That's what good readers do. Congratulations on your great effort and progress, Blake.

C9 Melody Kopua-Beckham has made a positive start to school. Melody always has a positive, 'Go for it' attitude towards her learning. She is helpful in the classroom and likes to ensure everyone is doing ok. Melody is an independent worker and always attempts to try new learning by herself. Keep up the fantastic work Melody. You are a pleasure to have in C9.
