Term One Academic Achievement Discussions

We welcome parents and whanau to attend Academic Achievement Discussions this evening, Thursday 6th April 3.30pm—8pm. Discussions start at 3.30pm.

School App / FaceBook/ School Website

- Glenholme School has a Facebook page for you to view any information and regular updates on any sporting and extra curricular events happening.
- Our School App is now live!!. Search for 'Glenholme' in your App Store or Play Store and download.
- Glenholme School has a website;
www.glenholme.school.nz

The School Newsletter will be accessed via these three forms in Term Two. Starting Term Two the paper copy of the school newsletter will no longer be sent home on Thursdays and will be available on-line instead.

PRINCIPALS AWARDS

Awarded to students making exceptional effort and or achievement at school, therefore deserving of acknowledgement and recognition.

A1: Kakala Napa'a for working incredibly hard at producing a high standard of writing each week. Your information reports over the past few weeks have included a variety of compound sentences which have demonstrated your ability to achieve your learning intention. You are eager to spend your own time to improve your writing and ensure that you have met each of your success criteria. Keep up the amazing work Kakala.

A2: Kellie Smith-Anderson for confidently and independently following the Writing Process, from planning her work, through to the publishing stage. Kellie is also quick to implement her next step learning, as identified by her and the teacher. Keep up the great work Kellie!!

A3: Shreya Renjin for being a positive role model in A3 who demonstrates what a good learner you are to your classmates. You know what your learning intention means and how you will know that you have been successful in your writing. You are always striving to achieve quality work across all areas of the curriculum. Tumeke Shreya.

A5: Awatea Wood for the fantastic writer you are becoming Awatea. You are able to convert your plan into a draft and understand the structure of an information report. Your use of technical language has also developed. Keep up the great mahi!

A6: Micah Overbye for making great progress in achieving his writing learning intention on saying, hearing and writing sounds he can hear in new words. Micah is able to write most first and last sounds and is transferring this knowledge to his reading where he is checking that words look right, sound right and make sense. It is great to see you moving up in your reading levels. Keep up the awesome progress Micah.

B1: Devin Lambert for being able to identify various sentence starters and use adjectives to add detail to her writing. Using her Success Criteria she can make improvements to her writing. Devin is beginning to understand that her writing is for an audience. You have achieved so much this year! Whaea Nicky is proud of you.

B2: Hineringa Falwasser for working really well on her Learning Intention and Success Criteria for Writing. Hineringa is able to check her writing using a red pen. She can also respond to feedback from her teacher and make the necessary changes to her writing. She can also help her classmates by checking their writing as well. Ka pai Hineringa, B2 are very proud of you!

B3: Te Pito Houia-Richards for being able to recall his Learning Intention for Reading, Writing and Maths. I am impressed with your ability to remember all this information plus you know a few of your Success Criteria from memory too! Te Pito knows that there are three places he can find this information - in his head, in the group modelling book and in his own workbooks.

B5: Sahara Olsen for the wonderful work she is completing during writing time. She knows her Learning Intention and her Success Criteria. She is also getting good at monitoring her work against the Success Criteria. Sahara is also demonstrating good leadership skills and is becoming a helpful role model for her B5 peers. Whaea Mercia is impressed with your efforts.

B6: Aizen Abangan for excellent progress with his learning in reading, writing and maths. Aizen is reading confidently and accurately. He can write an interesting animal report. He is solving addition and subtraction problems very quickly in his head. Keep up your quick, keen learning, Aizen. We love having you in B6.

C6: Georgia Davies for being a marvellous mathematician! Georgia can skip count in 2's, 5's & 10's forwards and backwards. She can read unit fractions and divide objects into equal parts to make fractions. Georgia you are always working hard to get your work completed to a high standard and are a fantastic role model to C6. Keep up the good work, tino pai Georgia for being a C6 Superstar!

C7: Emily Sollitt is a capable, independent learner in C7. She always works hard to produce excellent work. Emily often finishes first and can be commended on the quality of her work. Emily is making good progress in all areas of the curriculum and is a wonderful role model for other students. Keep up your wonderful effort Emily, Whaea Jodene is very proud of you

C8: Layla Thompson for your excellent progress and achievement this year. You have already reached the National Standard in Reading, Writing and Maths, even though your birthday is in May. You have made outstanding progress to achieve this success. Mrs Caudwell and Whaea Shari think your attitude, concentration, and determination is amazing. You are a fantastic role model for students in C8. Congratulations Layla.

C9: Haisley Reyes for making great progress in her reading. Haisley is now reading confidently at red. She can point to the words and is beginning to sound new words out. Haisley has a great 'Go for it' attitude and takes a lot of pride in the presentation of her work. She is a lovely kind member of our classroom. You are a pleasure to have in C9 Haisley.

Those recognised for the Principal Award will sit in the front row of the seats in assembly. After assembly recipients retire to the staffroom with Mrs Macfarlane and/or Mrs Thompson for a special morning tea. Parents and whanau are welcome to attend School Assemblies at 9.15am next Thursday 13th April to see your child receive their acknowledgement.
