F.O.T.S. Pool Party for Year 4/5/6

Friends of the School committee are planning a Pool Party at the Aquatic Centre on Tuesday 27th June 6pm—7.30pm. We would like to hold this event but need parent helpers for the supervision of Year 4/5/6 students—as any younger students require parents/caregivers to be actively swimming with their children (as per Aquatic Centre regulations) Please phone 3481489 or email the school office on office@glenholme.school.nz if you are able to help. If we do not get the helpers unfortunately this activity will not happen.

Glenholme School F.O.T.S. Spelling Bee 2017

- Help your child while supporting your school's fundraising.
- The test will be on Friday 4th August 2017—Term 3
- Spelling Bee Sheets will go home 26th June 2017—Term 2
- Encourage your child to learn and practise, practise, practise!
- Every child who returns their named sponsorship card and money will be entered into the draw.

Cross Country Results Year 2 Girls Race 2

Apologies—last week this information got missed from the school newsletter.

- 1st Lotti Tarplett
- 2nd Amelia Tarplett
- 3rd Azaer Treleaven

Early Morning Arrivals

There is growing concern about the number of children that are arriving to school between 7.30-8am. This is an unsafe practice. Children are in a position (where at this time of the morning) there is no-one in the school grounds to ensure their personal safety.

Central Bay of Plenty Rippa Rugby Tournament

Whaea Puarito, Matua Erik and Matua Piripi took an awesome bunch of Year 3/4 and Year 5/6 students to the Central Rippa Rugby tournament that was held at the Ray Boord Park last Wednesday. Our Year 3/4 won their grade with convincing results and the Year 5/6 team came second. Both teams will be representing Glenholme School in the BOP Rippa Rugby Tournament this Friday 16th June.

Players of the Tournament: Year 3/4 Team to Atutahi Jennings and Year 5/6 Team to Wiremu

PRINCIPALS AWARDS

Awarded to students making exceptional effort and or achievement at school, therefore deserving of acknowledgement and recognition.

A1: Joel Overbye for working extremely hard in writing. Joel, it is amazing to see you so eager to use your success criteria to consistently improve your writing. You understand the purpose of persuasive writing and are able to successfully convince your audience on a variety of different topics. It is a joy to see you responding to feedback and setting high expectations for yourself. Well done, keep up the great work.

A2: Upuia Richel for her enthusiasm for and growing independence in writing. Upuia quickly settles to her writing task, as is keen to put her colourful imagination and ideas on paper. She progresses through the writing process, from planning, through to publishing, with increased confidence and understanding, and demonstrates a growing awareness of her next learning steps when self editing against the Success Criteria. Tino Pai Upuia!

A3: Angel Zhang for being a good learner in A3 at Glenholme School because she includes all the success criteria in her writing and even independently chooses extra success criteria to challenge herself. She works independently on challenging Rotomaths questions and uses every strategy she knows to work them out by herself. She never gives up until she has the right answer. Mrs Norton loves that she demonstrates perseverance and persistence.

A5: Salman Ansari for your diligence and commitment to your learning which is fantastic! You are constantly working hard to make progress across all areas of the curriculum, and you are starting to see the results. You are the epitome of our class motto- "Be Brave, Not perfect" as you are always taking risks and willing to give everything a go. We are so proud of you Salman!

A6: Tahlia Smith for showing great determination and persistence in achieving in her reading. Tahlia has learned all her word fans up to blue and has used this word knowledge and her understanding of the story to progress steadily up the reading rocket. What a fantastic listener and hard worker you are Tahlia!

B1: Starr Rogers for always having a positive attitude towards her learning. She is consistently making an effort in her reading. Starr is able to recognise most of her red high frequency words and can independently read many of the books in her browsing box. Whaea Nicky and Whaea Angie are so proud of you. Anō te pai!

B2: Lovelyan Tafuna for the vast improvement with your learning, especially with your Writing and Maths. Lovelyan is always doing her absolute best to achieve her learning task. She makes a conscious effort to check her Success Criteria regularly and knows if she is on the right track to completing her task successfully. Ka mau te wehi Lovelyan!

B3: Kase Te Aoturoa-Rangitutia for working incredibly hard in Writing over the past few weeks. Kase has shown in the ideas that he shares, and in his actual writing that he is able to use conjunctions to connect two ideas together. Whaea Susan was amazed with the work you completed last week. Your Learning Intention was to write compound sentences accurately and you certainly had evidence of that in your writing. Keep up the fantastic work Kase and keep concentrating like you have been and you will only continue to improve!

B4: Jaydah Heke for coming to school with a smile on her face everyday. She takes responsibility for herself, her actions and her school work. Jaydah uses her initiative to help other students in and out of class especially our new students. Jaydah works to a high standard and encourages others to do their best work too. Mrs Vincent is very proud of you Jaydah, I hope you are too

B5: Daniel Baume for the outstanding sportsmanship, attitude and motivation that he displayed during the Cross Country race, that got him first place! He has also displayed a positive attitude towards his class work, especially report writing. He knows his Learning Intention and has been practicing to mark his work against his Success Criteria. Whaea Mercia is impressed with your efforts.

C6: Ashtyn Hunia for knowing what makes her a good learner and consistently trying her best across all areas of the curriculum to meet her success criteria. This has seen her progress from stage 3 to stage 4 in maths, and in reading she is now on gold 2 level. Ashtyn works hard and is a responsible and caring class mate. Keep up the awesome mahi Ashtyn, ka mau te wehi!

C7: Addison MacDougall for being a very responsible learner in C7. She is super sensible and always displays the attributes of what a good learner is. Addison is a pleasure to have in the class and will always give things a go even if they are tricky! Well done Addison, keep up the superstar effort.

C8: Charli Curtis for being the first person in C8 to reach Stage 4 in Maths. That means that you are Above the National Standard. You know about your own learning and progress in all subject areas. Your positive, diligent and hard-working attitude pays off in your achievement. You are a role-model in C8, because not only are you focused on learning, but you are a kind and caring friend, who always shows the Glenholme School Values. Ka rawe, Charli.

C9: Himanshi Mudaliar for making an extra effort with her learning in reading and writing. Himanshi knows where to find her learning intention for writing and is practicing to independently check if she has achieved it. She is able to read and spell a large amount of high frequency words and is beginning to use them in her writing and recognise them when she is reading. Whaea April is very impressed with your perseverance Himanshi. Keep up the great work.
