F.O.T.S Spelling Bee

Wow! Well done to all students and whanau who have supported our 2017 super Spelling Bee. We have raised over $8,800!! A Glenholme School record. We are beyond grateful for all the support that whanau and friends have shown towards this fundraiser.

F.O.T.S Disco

The F.O.T.S committee are hosting one of their world famous night discos on Thursday 14th September! Runs from 6pm to 8pm. More information will follow, but save the date!

The Friends of the School Committee are also holding a meeting to help with the organisation of the disco, this is being held in the staffroom at 3pm, this Monday 28th August. We are ALWAYS looking for new members and helpers, please come and join us.

BOP 7's Tournament

Congratulations to the Year 5/6 Team that represented Glenholme School last week. The team came second in their division. Fantastic effort from the boys who demonstrated the Glenholme Go for it Attitude, exemplary behaviour and sportsmanship. Thanks to Matua Erik for preparing the team to compete successfully.

PRINCIPALS AWARDS

Awarded to students making exceptional effort and or achievement at school, therefore deserving of acknowledgement and recognition.

A1 Mason Stroud for being a motivated, engaged and positive learner in A1. Mason, as the year progresses you have continually demonstrated a positive attitude towards your learning. You are eager to ask for help when you need further support, you contribute fabulous ideas during class discussions and you are always willing to help others. A1 and Whaea Sarah are very proud of how hard you are working towards achieving success.

A2 Keolani Bishop for having a strong understanding of her Learning Intentions, as well as how she will achieve these goals (Success Criteria), in all key learning areas. This includes knowing the times tables to help her solve percentage problems in maths, being able to answer inference questions in reading, and including an interesting problem and surprising solution in her narrative writing. Tino Pai Keolani!!

A3 Sebastian Hague for his well-written version of Jack and the Beanstalk.. Sebastian paints a vivid picture for his audience and engages them with humorous dialogue, vivid adjectives and an imaginative story line. Sebastian read his story to classes within the Whakapoungakau team and used great expression, which captured the attention of his peers.

A5 Navara Stehlin for the constant focus and effort you put into all areas of your learning which is truly amazing! You are always willing to share your thinking with others, showing confidence and a willingness to take risks. You have been developing an understanding of how to use your success criteria to guide your next steps, which has paid off in your writing progress. Keep up the great mahi!

A6 Brody Carroll for putting maximum effort into all his learning. Brody is a careful listener and carries out all activities with complete focus. He is making progress in remembering his letters and basic words. Brody takes pride in the presentation of all his work and this can be seen in the detailed and interesting art works he has created. Keep up the great work Brody!

B1 Jordan Hogan-Palmer for demonstrating the Glenholme school values of achievement and a Go For It! attitude. Jordan has moved up two reading levels and with teacher assistance is steadily working towards his learning intention and success criteria. Jordan is also able to independently write several sentences, using both his plan and relevant classroom resources to assist him. Tumeke Jordan. Keep up the good work.

B2 Carter Nicholls for producing some excellent pieces of writing recently. Carter writes with great imagination to captivate and hook in his readers by taking them on a journey. He always uses language that is relevant to the topic to help create impact to his stories. Ka pai Carter, Kia kaha and keep up your awesome efforts!

B3 Beth Crengle for consistently working hard in B3. Beth focuses on her tasks, refers to her Learning Intentions and Success Criteria for Reading, Writing and Mathematics and shows a genuine commitment towards her learning. Keep up this excellent work ethic and attitude Beth, ka mau te wehi!

B4 Christopher Poafa for making extra effort with his reading and writing. Christopher practises at home to help his learning at school. His positive, hard-working diligence is paying off in his achievement of writing his first and last name, learning the letter sounds and in his reading. Christopher is a role-model in B4, not only because he is focused on his learning, but he is a kind, caring and responsible friend who always shows the Glenholme Values. You should be very proud of yourself Christopher. Keep up the great work.

B5 Kayleigh Waerea for the outstanding work she completes during writing time. She knows her writing learning intention and success criteria. and practices these during her writing time. Kayleigh has a good understanding of nouns, verbs, adjectives and similes and she knows how to use punctuation to show more expression in her stories. Keep up a fantastic work, Whaea Mercia is very proud of your efforts.

B6 Natasha Hodge for working so well with her learning in Year 2. Natasha works hard at reading time to make sure her reading makes sense, sounds right, and looks right too. At reading time she is keen to write lots of interesting animal facts with describing words and science topic words. Natasha is working hard with basic facts and teen facts at maths time. She is a smiling, cheerful student who is always eager to learn new things. Keep up the great attitude, Natasha. We love having you in B6.

C6 Mannatpreet Kaur for having made incredible progress since she started at Glenholme School. She always works hard, shows pride in her work and demonstrates the 'Give it a Go' attitude. She has been writing complete sentences that have capital letters, full stops and she reads back to make sure it makes sense. Miss Bridgeman and C6 are very proud of your progress Mannat, keep up the hard work.

C7 Toakase Napa'a for being a diligent worker across all areas of the curriculum. She always listens carefully to instructions and completes tasks to an extremely high standard. Toakase is a very capable writer, she can assess her work against the success criteria, and will make changes if necessary to improve her message. Toakase you are such a pleasure to have in C7, keep up the great effort

C8 Tiana Wharerau-Smith for moving forward in Reading and Writing. You have started to try hard with your learning, and are making a fantastic effort. Now you are starting to read and write the words on the word fans and Butterfly cards, and that is helping you with books and stories. It is great to see your progress Tiana. Keep it up.

C9 Luke Robson for your constant diligence and dedication towards your learning across reading, writing and maths. You listen carefully and follow instructions right away. Luke is making good progress in his writing. He always self checks and re-reads to make sure his writing make sense. Well done Luke C9 are very proud of your efforts.
