TEACHER UNION MEETING TODAY

On Thursday 28th June the teachers from this school will be attending a NZEI Te Riu Roa union meeting regarding the Kua Tae Te Wā - It's Time campaign.

Our teaching staff are members of NZEI and legally entitled to attend this meeting. The teachers will be leaving school on Thursday 28th June to attend their paid union meeting which starts at 2pm.

Parents are encouraged to make arrangements to pick their child(ren) up from school by 12.50pm on Thursday 28th June.

MUFTI DAY FUNDRAISER

Last week a whanau from Glenholme School experienced a house fire. The whanau although shaken are doing ok, unfortunately they lost the house and contents.

To help support the whanau we would like to have a MUFTI DAY THURSDAY 28TH JUNE and ask for a gold coin donation. All proceeds from the Mufti Day will go to the whanau.

Principal's Award

Awarded to students making exceptional effort and or achievement at school, therefore deserving of acknowledgement and recognition. Presented to recipients on Thursday 5th July at 10am in the staffroom and will be live on FaceBook at the time of the presentation.

A1 Sophie Martin for showing perseverance in her learning. Over the past few weeks Sophie has identified when she has been stuck in the learning pit. She has taken charge of her learning, by using strategies to get herself out of the pit, whilst demonstrating the learning dispositions of being a risk taker and collaborator. She has worked really hard in writing and it is fabulous to see her lovely smile when she achieves success. Well done Sophie. Keep it up.

A2 Luke Nicholas for his outstanding pieces of Narrative and Procedural writing this term. Luke is including all of his Success Criteria to compose pieces of writing that reflect his understanding of the use of similes, metaphors, sequencing of events and a range of colourful adjectives. Luke has also succeeded in reaching the curriculum level for a Year 6 writer. Awesome effort Luke.

A3 Avish Chand for consistent commitment towards being a 'good learner' at Glenholme School. Avish, you work incredibly hard in all areas of school life. Your classmates see you as a good learner because of your diligence in finishing work to your own high expectations. You are always willing to help others in A3 by sharing your knowledge and understanding and providing support. Congratulations Avish, you are a fantastic role model!

A4 Aqib Kahn for having worked well showing that he is up for any academic challenge. Aqib finishes all tasks in class and at home. He checks his success criteria and works to achieve these. Aqib will always ask for help and is also willing to help others. He is a great team player and loves learning new things. Well done Aqib.

A5 Devin Lambert for being a positive and motivated learner in A5. You go out of your way to help others; showing integrity for yourself and respect for all. In your learning you are making a huge effort to understand the learning intention and follow the success criteria. This is particularly evident in reading. A5 is very fortunate to have such a wonderful student as part of our learning community. Thank you for being so wonderful.

Principal's Award

A6 Caleb Williams for being a fantastic learner because he tries very hard to use R.I.D.E both inside and outside of the classroom. He is starting to use his Learning Intention in his reading and writing, by doing this Caleb has made progress in both of these areas. He is now using finger spaces nearly every time he writes! Mrs Kiel is very proud of you Caleb and I love your superstar attitude you are displaying. Keep up the hard work!

A7 Skylar Tiopira-Rawhiti for displaying the Glenholme School learning disposition of self-regulation. Skylar is beginning to write by herself. She is using her butterfly cards to find words she needs and writing sounds she can hear. Skylar can say what she needs to do to achieve her learning intentions and move up the progressions. Tino Pai Skylar

B1 Georgia Davies for being a great role model for your peers in B1 and you continually demonstrate the school values in all aspects of your school life. You understand the importance of the learning pit and strive to utilise all of the available strategies in your kete when you get stuck. Tu Meke Georgia!

B2 Boran Aydin for showing great commitment to his learning and knowing what successful learners do. Well done on your participation during guided reading sessions and demonstrating understanding of your learning intentions. You are a cooperative and valued member of B2 and Whaea Jade is proud of you, ka pai Boran!

B3 Deejah Tahana for his diligent effort and enthusiasm in Mathematics. He taking risks with his learning and accepting challenges to improve his progress. Keep striving for excellence Deejah, tino pai!!

B5 Adyzia Chisnall-Karaitiana for being a focused and driven Glenholme learner. She actively listens to new learning and responds with grit when she faces a challenge. She successfully met all of her success criteria during a recent measurement lesson when learning to measure perimeter and area. Her astounding work showed that even when you get stuck in the learning pit, your learning dispositions will help you overcome your challenge!

B6 Shiya Scott for having been a great learner in B6 because she asks questions if she is not sure what to do, and she works cheerfully and perseveres until she has finished an activity. Her writing and art work have been very careful and neat. Shiya helps other students with their work too. We love having you in B6, Shiya.

Principal's Award

C6 Aleeyah Taikato-Paul for being a C6 superstar learner because she is determined and hard working. She has high expectations to complete her work to her best ability, demonstrating perseverance when learning is tricky. Aleeyah is making steady progress in Reading, Writing, and Mathematics, she is also striving to meet goals she has set herself in her learning. Keep working hard Aleeyah and believe in yourself, mauria te pono!

C7 Brodie McMillan for being a good learner at Glenholme School. Brodie is achieving well in Reading, Writing, and Maths. He knows his Learning Intentions, and can think about what he needs to do next. Brodie likes to succeed and work independently. He listens to feedback, and uses that to help him make changes to his work so he can achieve success. Congratulations on being a self-regulated learner Brodie.

C8 Harper van der Vlugt for self regulating your learning. Harper, you arrived at school very keen to learn. You strive for excellence across the curriculum areas and take control over your learning. Lately you have been working hard on your word fans at home, resulting in finishing all of them! It is wonderful to see you take on feedback and carry on this learning at home too. Keep up the wonderful work Harper.

C9 Willow Bryers for having made great progress in your reading. You are reading your basic words correctly and beginning to notice when you are making mistakes. You are able to talk about the ideas in your story. Keep up striving for excellence Willow you are doing very well.

School Uniform and Dress Code

Compulsory School Uniform for all Year 0-6 students. However, there are no winter or summer restrictions. The dress code has been designed to give students a wide choice of options whilst maintaining the school identity.

- Parents select from the range of items available what is appropriate for their child/ren
- Compulsory School Uniform Sun Hat for all Year 0-6 students in terms 1 and 4
- Shoes, sneakers, boots, jandals or sandals are to be plain black
- Socks are to be plain black
- Girls wearing winter tights must be black
- Polypropylene or thermals (winter months) worn under the school uniform must be black
- All new enrolments must start Glenholme School in full uniform
- Students must wear regulation school uniform, non-uniform items similar in colour and style are not acceptable.
- Except in an emergency, students must wear correct dress code. Parents are required to write a letter of explanation if their child wears non-uniform clothing or footwear, stating the reason. Your child presents the letter to school management in the morning
- When a student comes to school with incorrect uniform and with or without a notice of explanation, they will be sent to the office and provided with uniform that they can borrow for the day
- Non-uniform clothing items will be removed whilst at school and must be collected by the student at the end of each day
- The school accepts no responsibility for any non-uniform clothing items
- All school uniform items should be clearly named
- The only jewellery items to be worn are medic alert ID, a wrist watch or items of religious or cultural significance
- Hair accessories should remain minimal - colourful bows and headbands are discouraged
- Occasionally second-hand items are available via the school office. Notification for parents is posted in the School Newsletter
