Jump Jam Session with Brett Fairweather

Glenholme students and staff started today with a whole school Jump Jam session with Brett Fairweather, the creator of 'Jump Jam'. Brett started Jump Jam 18 years ago after becoming the World Champion for Aerobics. Many schools including Glenholme do Jump Jam as part of their PE curriculum with both the music and routines being very popular with students of all ages. Jump Jam is a fusion of dance and fitness disciplines along with cultural interpretations that capture the look, attitude, posture and elements of Aerobics and Fitness. Brett has ensured that Jump Jam continues to transform with each new generation of music. Thank you Brett for visiting our school this morning and getting everyone up and moving, we had a blast! Check out our facebook page for video footage.
